Welcome Week

Welcoming grade 10's to Scona this year was a big event. Although the main attraction was the first dance of the year, a street dance held outside in the teachers' parking lot, the whole week was filled with exciting lunchtime activities. On Tuesdays a balloon relay was held in the gym exclusively for the grade 10's. Clubs Day was on Wednesday, and all the school clubs vied for new members. On Friday, as well as the dance, was the first assembly giving grade 10's a taste of what their lives at Scona would be like. If all that didn't make the grade 10's feel welcome, well, nothing would!

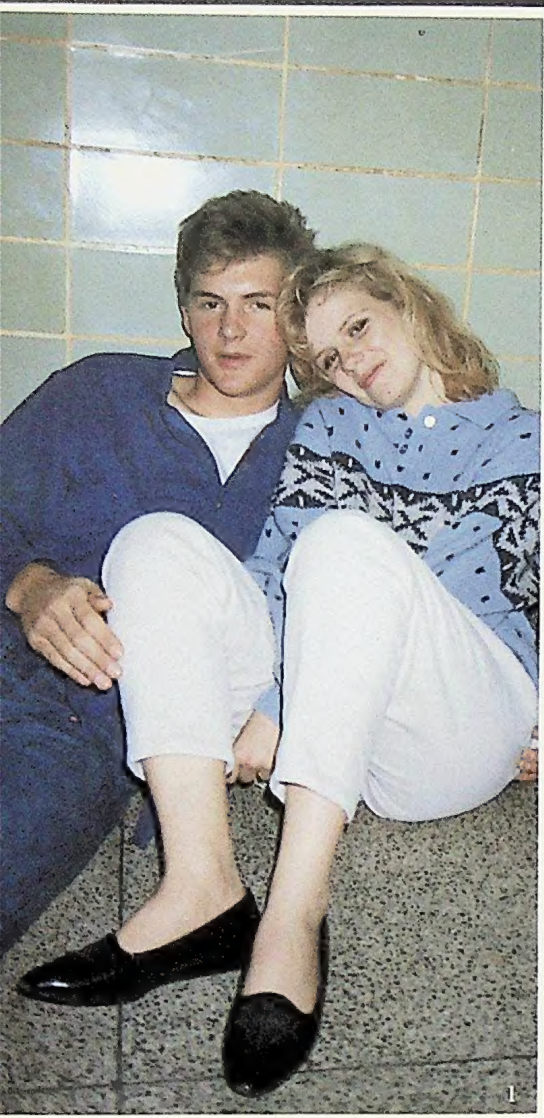

1. A frazzled Tina Covlin 2. The dancing duo, Connie Buerger and Simi Dhinsa 3. Linette Smith and Paul Demarco break for candid camera 4. Teacher's boogying it up 5. Dance fever hits John Mohr and Chris Proctor 6. Fred Dame, a.k.a. "Cheshire Cat" 7. Brent Lavalley with his friend Chris Attrell 8. Grade 10's catch the spirit! 9. Tara Bochke and William "Mick Jagger" Campbell.

"I know you are, but what am I?"

Grade Tens

Starting fresh the Grade 10's have their whole high school life to look forward to. The future lies stretched out ahead of them and they look forward, not back. New experiences and new friends take the place of old ones, and the novelty doesn't wear off for a long time. Although the classes are much the same, it is the clubs, teams, and activities that make the difference. Scona is like a clean piece of paper just waiting to be written on.

1. Brent Douglas and Kelly Stuart cuddle up 2. Dave Johnson and Craig Hansen face an attack of the killer apples! 3. Paula Williams, Leanne McLeod, Shea Stiles, and Julie Naylor--the women of lockers--1157 - 1160 4. Gregory Freson and Cory Ordze BEFORE they slide down the bannister 5. Dallas Miles and Craig Bennell--they're so cute! 6. A shy Ricky Underschultz 7. Sasha Mani returning from the Scona Shoppe 9. Tania Keller gets a ride from Brian Lang, while Christine Gorman waits her turn.

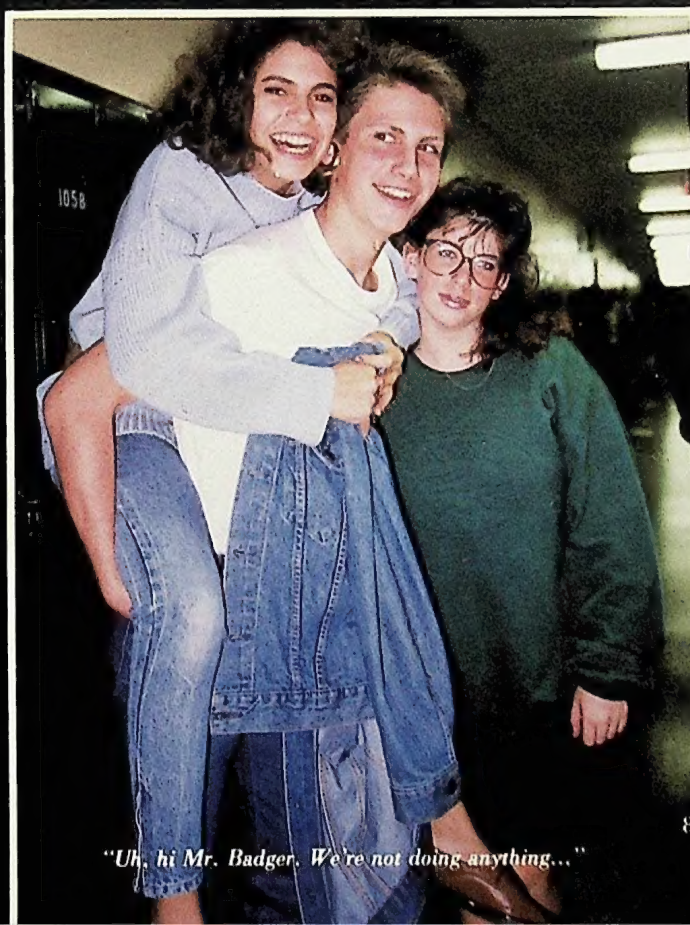

"Don't just stand there, get help!"

"Can you get this bag off my hand!"

"Uh, hi Mr. Badger. We're not doing anything..."

Halloween

Halloween at Scona wasn't scary, it was a whole week of fun. Pumpkin carving at noon Tuesday created a lot of spooky and ridiculous faces. Wednesday noon brought around the doughnut-on-a-string contest. Thursday meant apple bobbing and the school week was completed with costume judging on Friday. First place went to a gory scab-man, with Hershey's Kisses and a donkey placing close behind. The climax of the week was the Halloween dance, which turned out to be so successful that more tickets had to be printed.

1. The three stooges of pumpkin art 2. Kim "Tweedle Dee" Reddington and pal Charlene "Tweedle Dum" Gibson 3. Leanne McLeod, Shelley Foster, Kim Burton and Stephanie Schultz look good enough to eat! 4. Chris Fox is a bored Donald Duck 5. The gory mystery man who won first prize 6. Tracie Elliott and Karen Lange with their furry friend 7. Renee Sobie and Terry Barber and two medieval princesses.

" 'Polly wanna cracker...' What do ya mean wrong bird?!"

"Has anyone seen a couple of frogs?"

"Hi Mom!"

And they say Dristan clears the sinuses!

Grade Elevens

Although they have one year under their belts, there is still the future to live in. The grade 11's can look forward to their graduating year, and look back with pride on their first year. The next year will hold many surprises, and disappointments too, but most of all, it will mean a new start on life.

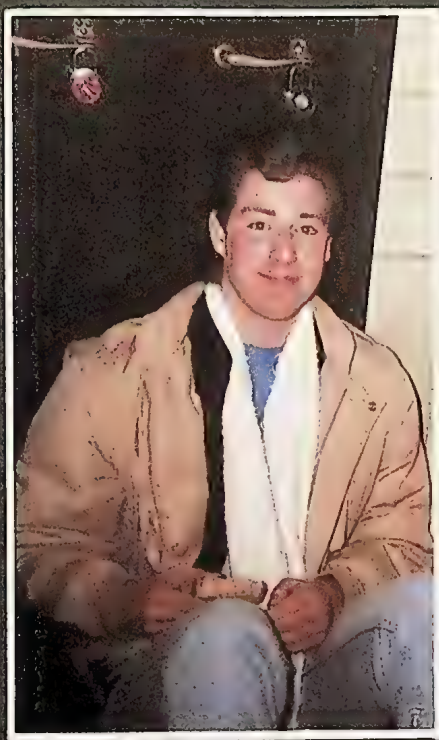

1. Lincoln Loo getting a ride from Omar Mohsen 2. Connie Starzynski taking a shower 3. Michael Achuff in his usual study position 4. Jon Miller at the Christmas Dance 5. Chad Sheppard rockin' to the beat 6. Agnes Barabas, Claire Heise, Chrissy Mitchell; The Three Stooges 7. Shawn Tribe smiling for the camera 8. Helen Powell on her way to her locker.

"There's nothing quite like smoking a good pen."

6

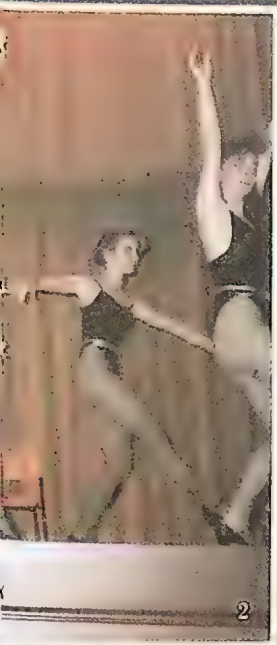

"So how about a date, huh?"

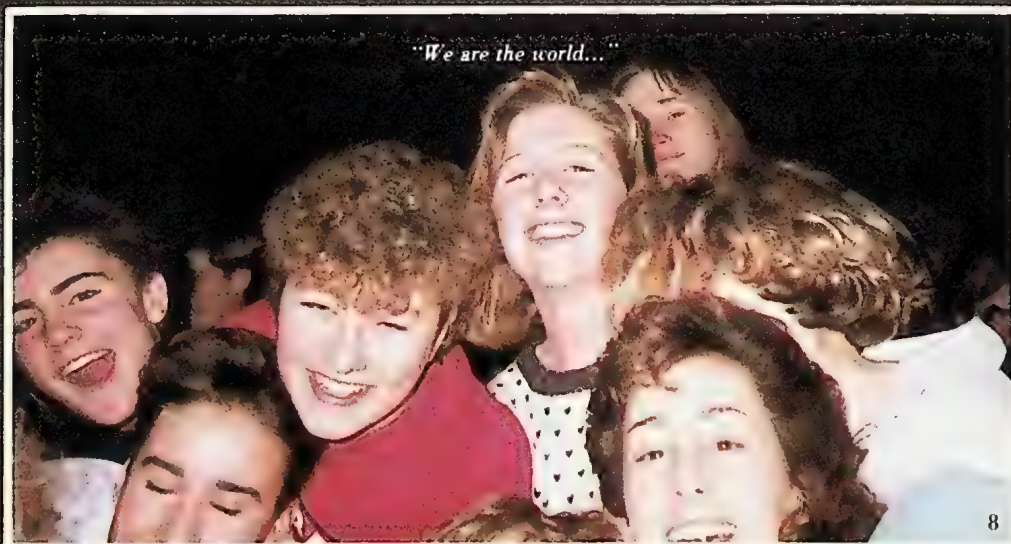

"Elvis, Move over!"

"I want your sax..."

Christmas

Christmas Week this year at Scona filled everyone with the holiday spirit-especially at the arrival of Santa Claus! The crowd for the traditional Christmas Lit was enthusiastic as they watched musicians, dancers, teachers, singers, and bands get up on stage and strut their stuff. Student Council wrapped things up with the annual Christmas Dance.

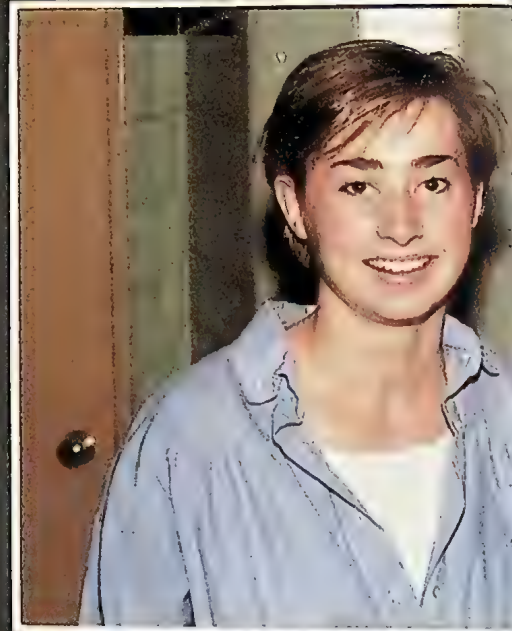

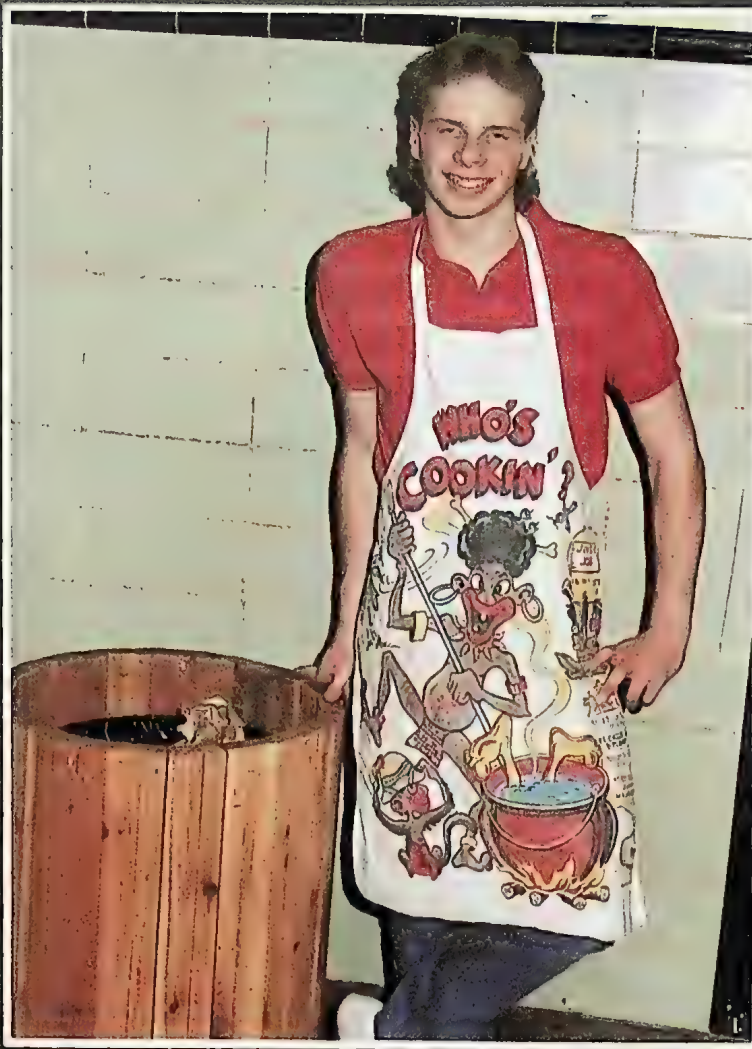

1. Student Council before they deliver Scona's foodbank donation 2. Scona's own dance troupe 3. Amelia Tan sings her version of "You Must Be An Angel" 4. Doug Brooks at his best 5. The talented Jim Law enralls his audience 6. Maryanne Hupka, Helen Powell, Corina Ratke and a bearded friend 7. Santa Claus, Dasher and Dancer, a.k.a. Amy Snyder, Kathy Hanefeld, Mary Ellen Pringle 8. The "Enthusiastic Crowd!"

Grads

For Grade 12's, Scona has become a home in the past few years, and this being the last year makes it all the more poignant. A sense of belonging, and a sense of pride in the school make the final year at Scona very special. Not knowing what the future holds in store, but looking forward to it anyway is what Grade 12 is all about.

"But Kenny, we just met!"

"Stop that you guys, I'm trying to eat!"

1. Chef Donald Vogan 2. Pals Daralea Gravett and Liz Zahary 3. Man-of-the-hour Jeff Townsend with Amrita Charabarti and Trish Wright 4. Ken Edwards and Leslie Barnett: what a romantic couple! 5. Hazel Masih has a passion for apples 6. Kim Reddington and Simi Dhinsa get ready for the Pep Rally 7. Natalia Lombardi raising money for Grad.

"Come on, Natalia, save some for the rest of us!"

"Oh no! All over my new sweater..."

Activities

Boring lunch hours are spruced up by the Student's Union fun activities that entertain everyone, whether they choose to participate or just watch. Students are seen getting soaked while bobbing for apples, trying to eat donuts on a string, dancing in the tackiest clothes imaginable and budding barbers practice shaving balloons!

1. Tanya Anderson, Tracie Elliot and Tyler Hague show their Sco-na spirit 2. Paulie Hiebert and the remains of her balloon 3. Richelle Bondy - "Miss Tacky Aerobics 1987!" 4. Bobbing for apples 5. Linette Smith should be a barber 6. A popular donut-on-a-string contest 7. George Blazek struts his stuff.

"And one, and two, make it burn ... and three ..."

vanna Rock!

1. Michelle Buechner chats with a friend 2. Bonnie Ho and Lisa Irvine -- toothpaste commercial recruits 3. Jeff Addicott's math binder 4. Gerald Devost and his "sweetheart" Michael-Paul Duxbury 5. Lynn Zimmerman, Stuart Cunningham and Sandra share a secret.

TEACHERS

You made a difference. The students, staff, and parents have continued to add to the traditions and excellence that makes us so proud to be a part of the past and future of Scona. The performance, responsibility, and responsiveness of the students has been outstanding. The expertise, commitment, and caring of the staff has created an atmosphere that fosters learning, enjoyment, and success. The support of the parents has enhanced the efforts of students and staff.

Scona is a place where the search for excellence is viewed as a virtue. Talent, hard work, and dedication are respected. The students, staff, and parents generate a spirit of understanding, cooperation, and support that makes Scona a special place to be.

I hope that those of us who stay at Scona continue to build on the strong foundations of tradition and excellence that are so strongly in place. For those who are leaving I hope you take fond memories of Scona that will afford you happiness and support in the future. We hope your experiences at Scona have better prepared you to face the ups and downs that are a part of every person's life. We wish you good fortune, good luck and every success in your endeavours.

You have done your part in maintaining the wonderful tradition that is Scona and you will always be welcome at the school.

Thank you all for helping make the difference that is Scona.

DRAMA CLUB: "OUR TOWN"

In mid February the eclectic students of the Drama Club presented "Our Town" in six riveting performances. The critics raved!

"A tribute to the young actors who were able to absorb and reflect the pioneer spirit of America."

-Dindial

"A highly disciplined, controlled performance."

-McNab

"It was great!"

-Everybody else

"A great play! A wonderful cast! It worked, it worked!"

-The cast

PHOTO CLUB

BOOSTER CLUB
L-R: Tanya Harnett, Simi Dhinsa, Karen Harke, Mrs. Jones, Charlene Gibson, Kim Reddington.

The Booster Club advertises and promotes school activities.

CREATIVE WRITING

Creative Writing continued its resurgence on the Scona literary scene. Three Poets' Sweatshops and one Short, Short Story Sweatshop involving the whole school (first of its kind in a Canadian High School) were organized by the group. Winners were published in THE BIG MAG, several mini-mags and THE EDMONTON JOURNAL.

DEBATE CLUB

Scona's Debate Club had a busy and successful year. Members attended a weekend camp near Calgary in September, and entered tournaments in Edmonton, Rimbey, Leduc and Athabasca. In the provincial finals, the team of Katrina Haymond and Brent Knight came in third, and Brent placed first in the province as an individual speaker.

JAPANESE EXCHANGE

The students in the Yamate High School in Yokohama, Japan come to North America to study English as a part of their curriculum. Edmonton has been the site of this exchange for the past three years. This year 155 students will be visiting Edmonton, Scona will be hosting 24 of these for two weeks, April 16-30. Our students have the opportunity to visit Japan and learn more about their culture. These students will be in Japan from July 21-August 3.

RADIO CLUB

Scona Radio:
The kaleidoscopic voice of the "Lords".

JUST A PEACE GROUP

Back to front, L-R: Robin Hill, Jeff Addicott, Ron Willey, Raymond Dai, Terry Fyk, Jennifer Eagle, Tricia Maguire, Beth Hrychuk. Missing: Brent Knight, Leon Matthee, Rebecca Leonard.

Members of "Just a Peace Group" spent a productive year exploring world militarism and disarmament. The group fostered an enquiring atmosphere in Scona with such things as entertaining educational films shown monthly, and a monthly newsletter. Weekly meetings were also used to organize a letter writing campaign, bringing a speaker from Veterans Against Nuclear Arms to Scona, and a year-end conference and dance.

COMPUTER CLUB

The Computer Club provides students with the opportunity to learn the basics of computer use or to further explore their area of interest. Club activities include programming, user application of commercial software packages, and participation in a national Stock Market competition.

STUDENTS' COUNCIL

President's Message

Now that the 1987-88 school year is finished, all that's left is memories.

In between the exams and report cards, we were able to present some activities. Some of the highlights were the Halloween activities, the infamous Christmas Lit, Tropicana Days, and of course, our 3rd and the ever-thrilling Mr. Scona. This year we saw a revival in school spirit, as students actually came out to the dances.

I've really enjoyed being President this year, it was a lot of fun. It involved a lot of time, organizing and working the dances, being yelled at by parents, staff and students alike, but all in all it was a really good year.

I would like to thank the rest of the Student's Union for their tremendous effort, and the students for participating in the activities.

I hope everyone had a good year and I wish you all the best in the future.

Thank-you.

Toast the Future

Valedictorian

I am honored to have been chosen to make this speech. It is with great humility and great difficulty that I will try to make a satisfactory farewell to three years of school in the next three minutes. Our graduation tonight is the culmination of twelve years spent in schools, and it gives us a chance to philosophize and to ask ourselves what role we will play in the future of this world.

Graduation represents our transition from adolescence to adulthood. And, after twelve eternal years of school, a diploma is a prize to be treasured.

All our lives, we have been subjected to authority in its various forms, at home and at school, by parents and by teachers. Our consciences have been shielded by our obedience to these authorities. The bulk of the decisions we have had to make for ourselves -- so far -- have had little impact on others, or on the world as a whole. But the time is fast approaching when we will be the new authorities. We will inhabit the future we choose to create: be it a Utopia or a Police State.

It is up to us to claim the future for ourselves, as individuals, for what is the fate of the world if not the collective future of all the individuals in the world. Each of us is important to the future of this planet. But, unlike Math assignments or English essays, this responsibility that comes with adulthood cannot be forced upon us. Individual freedom means that there will always remain those alternatives in life that lead, variously, to a dead-end job, or to an unhappy marriage, or to the Betty Ford Center.

Our education, especially the last three years of it, has equipped us with the tools necessary to accept our responsibilities and to cope effectively with the challenge of the future. We live in a complex world of experts and specialists. This is why we require an academic education. But the personal talents and skills of individuals are not enough to hold society together. Without interpersonal social skills and cooperation, society would fall apart. Here, in high school, we have been allied in our struggle to get out of high school. By allowing us to work toward this common end, school has taught us this essential sense of comradeship, not just academic knowledge.

Regardless of what the future holds for us as individuals, whether it be homemaking, further education, or direct entry into the workforce, each of us makes a commitment to the future -- just by living. The world is made up of individuals, and if each works towards his or her goals with the passion that springs from personal belief, dedication, and commitment, then the future will be the best it can be.

We will walk the thin line between commitment and fanaticism, between faith and skepticism, and between idealism and pragmatism.

We will recover from the myth that "learning" is something that comes in four basic flavors: English, Math, Social Studies, and Science; that it can only be doled out in special buildings called schools; and even then, only between the hours of 8 a.m. and 3 p.m.

We will never be afraid to challenge stereotypes or dogmatism, no matter how generally accepted they may be.

We will never fear failure or personal risk-taking, because we know we can learn more from a single mistake than we would from a thousand lucky guesses.

We will welcome the opportunity to understand the past, and will show our appreciation of the hindsight this gives us by learning from the mistakes of ourselves and others.

Instead of saying, "we will not be apathetic" or "we will care", we will say "I am not apathetic. I care."

So, to paraphrase Churchill, this is not the beginning of the end, but, perhaps, it is the end of the beginning.

Finally, there is a quote that eloquently embodies all I have tried to say:

"In the years ahead, in all our endeavours, let us keep the consciousness of our responsibility to others foremost in our thoughts, convinced that we came from somewhere, and that we are going somewhere; that we must make our time here on earth an exciting and worthwhile adventure; that as others prosper, we prosper: for the fortunes of mankind always have and always will be interwoven."

Historians

A long time ago in a school system far, far away, there was a high school that lay a cut above the rest; Strathcona Composite. Then one year came a class, and little be-knownst to them they would become Scona's illustrious graduating class of 1988 ... at least some of us would graduate.

It all started when you kicked open the doors of Scona 3 years ago. It is the first day of the best days of your life, and hey, how did you know that corduroy bell bottoms were not in style? Not to worry, obviously some of the teachers didn't know either. Off you went to your first class, a map in one hand and a compass in the other.

You enter your first class in a cold sweat, hoping that your teacher won't pronounce your name in such a way that the whole class would laugh at you, but that was only a dream - this teacher even pronounces Smith wrong. After that, the class runs pretty smoothly. So it's on to your second class. All you have to do is find room 211. 208, 209, 210, 213 ... Where is class 211? It's not there! Eventually you find it - stuck at the end of the cafeteria hallway. You're 20 minutes late and the only desk left is in the front row, right in front of the teacher.

Soon enough it's time for lunch. As you enter the cafeteria, a ham sandwich travelling at 300 km/h grazes your ear. At this point you decide eating your lunch in the hallway would be safer. The rest of the day goes by fairly painlessly, talking with old friends, meeting new people. All in all, it hasn't been a bad first day.

Over the next few weeks you start to feel more and more relaxed, and begin to feel a part of the Scona pride, fueled and inspired by our fearless leader Gaylord. You don't feel completely comfortable, though, until you've danced half naked or in a dress for the grade ten initiation for gullible boys. High school dances; they were quite an experience too, for the first time boys and girls mixed, instead of standing polarized at either side of the gym. Along with social aspects it is also your first time to participate in serious interscholastic sports. Unfortunately, the team you join could be laughed at by the Bad News Bears.

But it ended up being another hallmark year for Scona athletics. The cross-country team won their 13th City Championship, Junior Volleyball also took City's, and our track team stole another victory, as usual. Although the year is going so well, not a day goes by when you don't look forward to summer vacation. The summer comes and goes, and now it's time for grade 11.

This is the year Mr. Gardner took the helm. Grade 11, more classes, more friends, more dances, more trophies, more frivolity, and a lot less work. What more can be said?

Grade 12, big man on campus, the one to watch, numero uno, leader of the pack. But all your dreams of power and glory are swept away like those of the Calgary Flames, by a pack of behemoth grade 10's towering above you in the halls. You soon realize that this is the least of your worries. Academic standings have never been so important. This is your final year in high school, the last chance to do all the things you've wanted to. Over the past 2 years there were so many teams and clubs you wanted to join, but didn't have the time.

This is only a brief summary of the events that have shaped the past three years and us along with it. We could never have enough time to mention all the great events, great people and great times we've spent together. Someday when we meet again we can reminisce about past glories, the jobs we had and the families we could have had if we hadn't ridden that damn bull. People will always say these were the best days of your life, let's hope they're wrong! No, seriously there have been a lot of good times, and we hope your life is filled with many more.

And good luck to our track team on winning its 17th consecutive City Championship. And we know that with your leadership the team can do it.

Good times: Apex '86, Florida '87, New Year '86, '87, '88. Hot tubs with PH, MW, LK, LS, TM, GA, SS, LK, BU, GU. Summer '87: "Where's the beach" "Holy hair" Goose and Bit's doin'. Shooters, boots and hot leather Rx'n with krew, burgers with smel, speaking with PH and LS, and endless nights with all at the ultimate party house!! "Life is made of memories and dreams dreaming for tomorrow and remembering yesterday." Thanx Scona!!

CRAIG, Jacqueline
Ain't school life great. Making friends, having fun and sometimes even making it to our classes. I made it through three years with friends like CM, HS, MP, DT, AL. With the help of CM's built-in radar detector we had a lot of laughs. MP-best of luck for the graduating class.

CURTIS, Margaret
Past Glory: meeting B.R. Ambition: to further my riding career.
"It is so important to love and respect the horse you ride and train and to make it your best friend. Only then will success arrive on your doorstep."

What about me, and you and the ones that we love,
What about us?

-Chris de Burgh

DAME, Fred A.
Going to Scona I had lots of fun partying and joking. In the sun
now we look to the future days.
There's something I would like to say: Though the future may seem scary, at least I'll know that I'll always be hairy.
School's out for the summer and school's out forever, so take it easy and thanks for all the good times.

When nothing seems to work, I go and look at a stonemason hammering away at his rock perhaps a hundred times without so much as a crack showing in it.

Yet at the hundred and first blow it will split in two, and I know it was not that blow that did it,

But all that had gone before.

A smile does wondrous things,
Just think of all the joy it brings.
A smile can brighten the darkest room,
When your world seems full of doom.
A smile will make your heart
lighter,
And the day of those around you seem brighter.
So smile your warmest smile
ever,
And just see if it doesn't make you feel better!

DISTAD, Leland

When I arrived at Scona last year, I thought I would hate it. After a year, I still hate it. It's an ugly school, but the people are special and I'll never forget them. To: Joey, Glen, Michelle, Beecroft and everyone else, it was interesting. I wish you only the best. And lastly, someone with whom I shared good times and something important. To Wendy. Thank you, Always.

DOERKSON, Kathy

When tomorrow comes, I hope my friends of today are beside me then. To my friends: may they succeed in all they try. And if they fail in some way, let them succeed in another.

DONNAN, Kevin

My nicknames are: Blood, Ian, Kev, Pet Peeves are Jeff saying: did you bring a case? Past Glories are: Partying with Blood and Villie and everybody else. Meeting my sweetie Richelle. Being a cop at H-park with Mike and Ken. Ambition: Radio DJ and go to Greece. Fave Saying: I'm cool, cocky and bbbad! Idols are: The H.T. Man and Johnny Wadd. Regrets: Living thru the Labor Day weekend and Not Gr-ing J.J. at the Oiler Game.

I owe my success to my good looks and brilliance. One question: Why is it that when a woman catches a man, all he wants to do is get away?

Three rules to live by:

1) Be sincere whether you mean it or not.

2) It's not my problem.

3) "I am not a potted plant."

 A pickle-snitcher once did live in Millwoods, Land of Ice.
 He pickle-snitched and wise-

 nice.
 Repent he did and could not live with guilt and awful shame.
 And so he thought that he could
 no longer play the game.
 "Replace the pickle!" was his thought - he searched stores high and low.
 What is enclosed is all he got - a pickle - in embryo!

In the end it comes down to your thinking
And there's really nobody to blame
When it feels like your ship is sinking
And you're too tired to play the game
Nobody's going to help you
You just got to stand up alone
And dig in your heels
And see how it feels
To raise a little hell of your own.
-Brian Smith/Ra McGuire

 you need an open door, mine's ajar, I'll take you in,
 that's what friends are for.
 There are moments in our lives
 when the path is bleak and grey.
 When insecurity overwhelms
 you,
 take my hand, I'll lead the way.
 I hope you carry me inside you.
 When we've gone our separate ways,
 that you smile and feel secure
 when you remember the good old days.

Graduation Banquet

What a sight! This year's graduation banquet was held at the Westin Hotel where grads, their parents and the teachers all got together for the last time. The grads looked ready to hit the real world dressed in their glamorous tuxedos and dresses. The future is waiting for them, but first PARTY!

"Can I keep them, mom ... can I, can I, huh?"

"What do you mean my zipper broke?"

Grad Council

The Grad Council organized the graduation banquet which was held at the Westin Hotel.

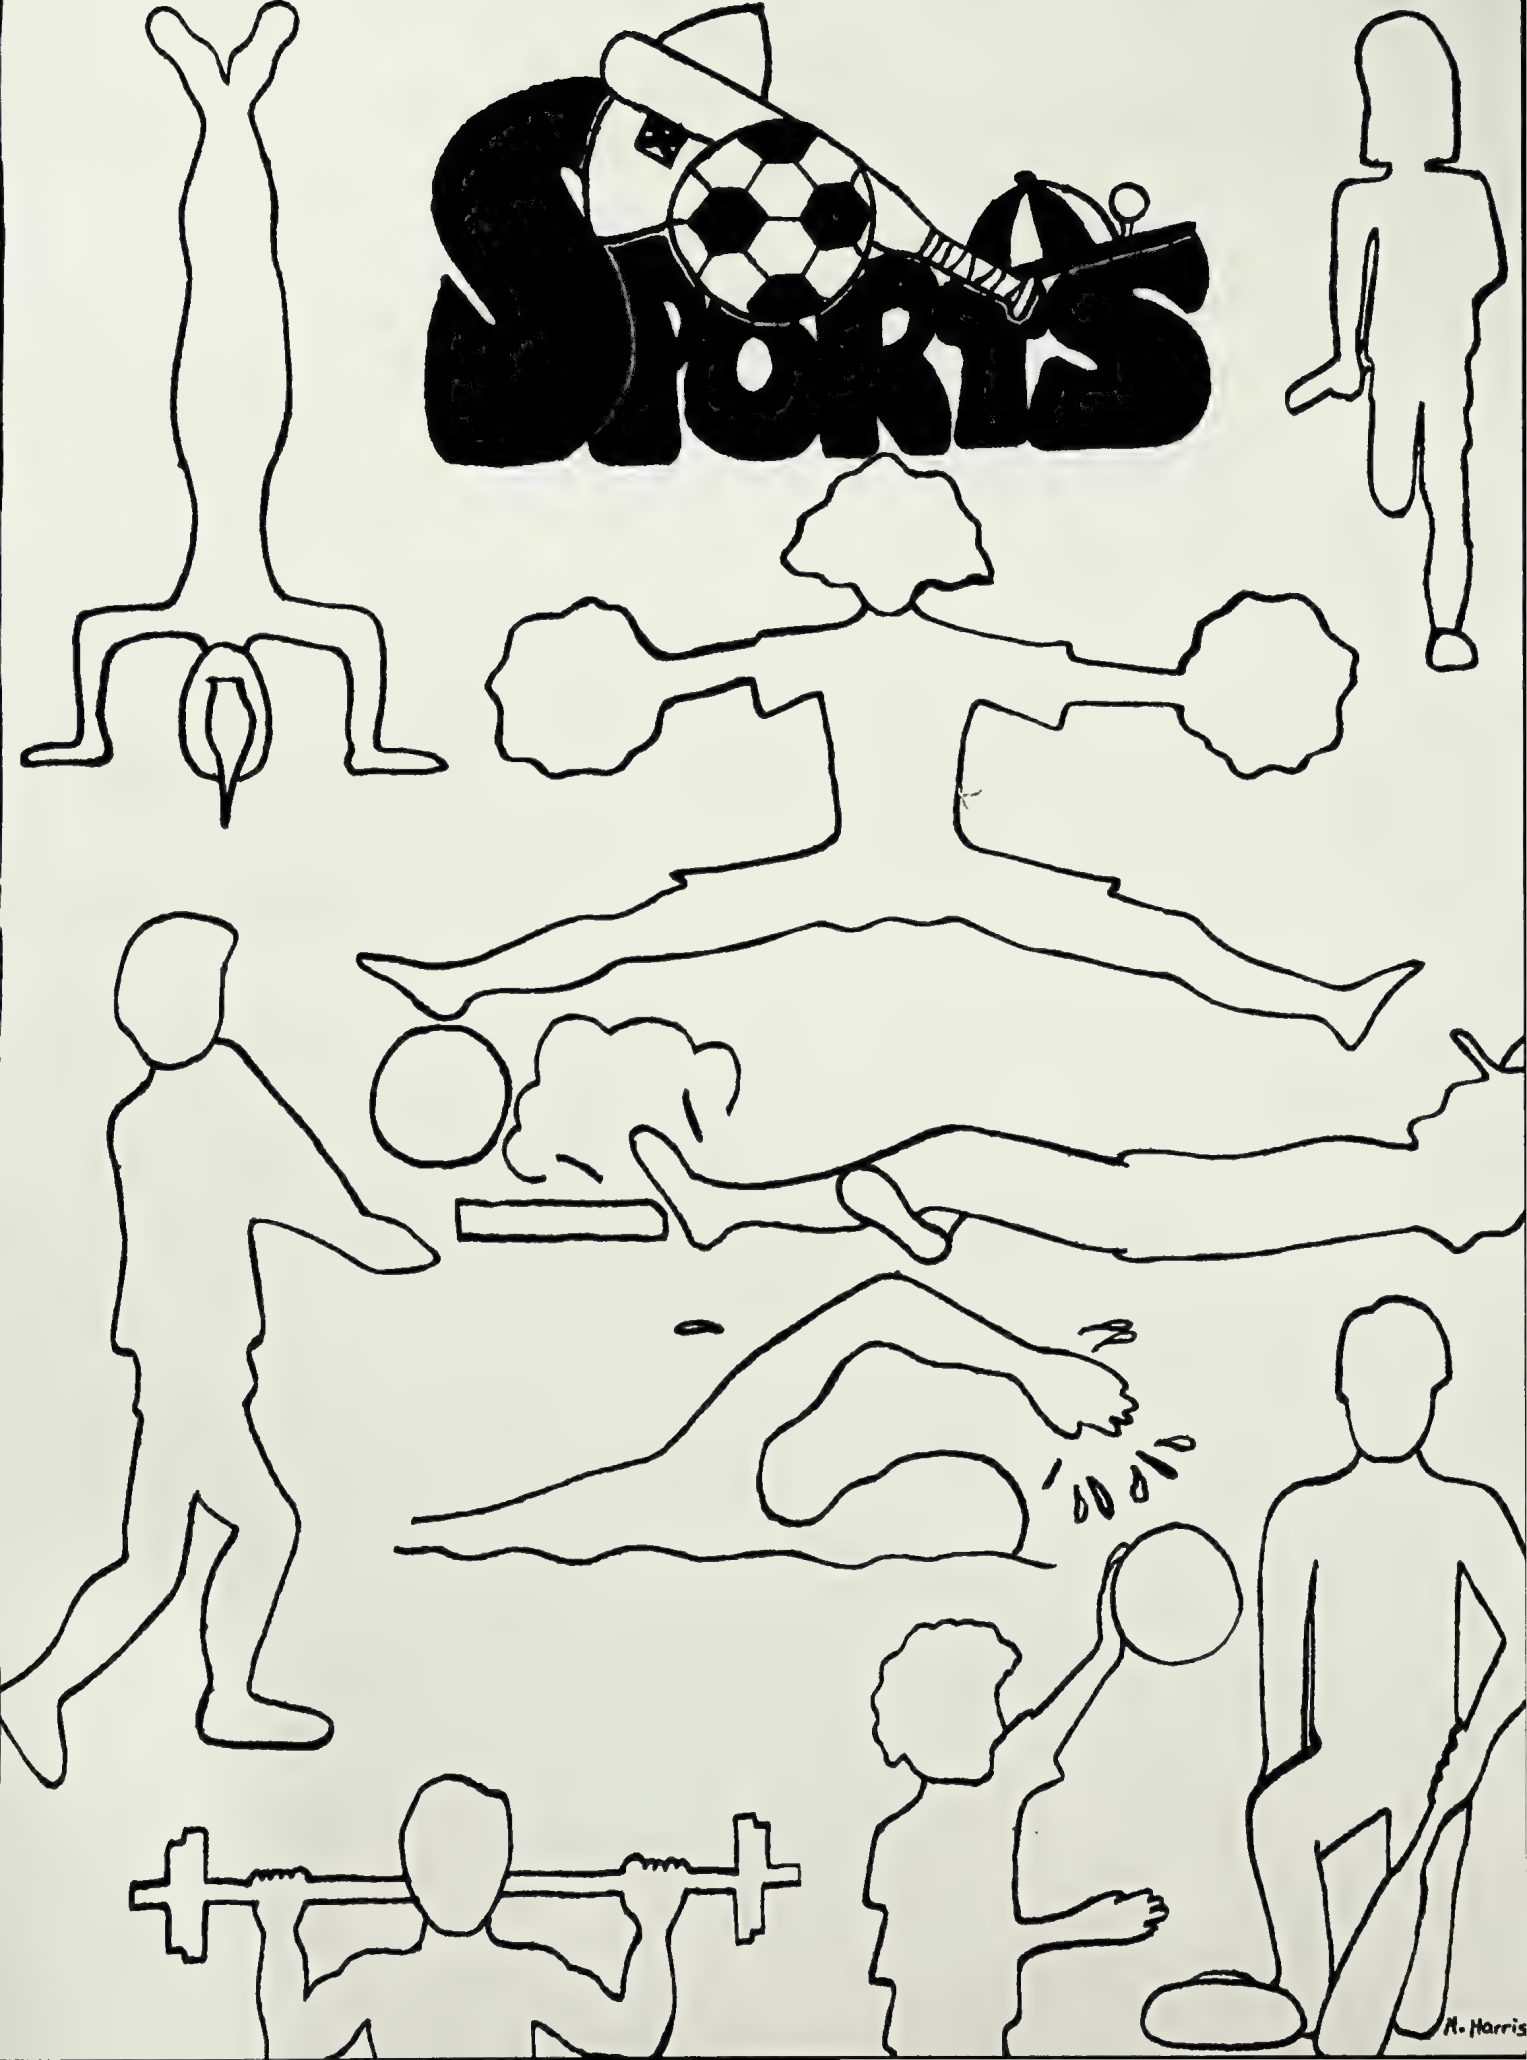

Back to front, L-R: Mr. Yeske, Michael-Paul Duxbury, Marcus Rudy, Clint Lee, Alex Chu, Peter Brindley, Mr. Kirkland, Sita Gourishankar, Natalia Lombardi, Lisa Rachuk.

"All right! What have you done with my date!"

Football

"Maybe if I hypnotize them we can win!"

The SENIOR LORDS football team of 1987-88 had a 3 and 3 record during the regular season. Although the team did not make the play-offs, there were many impressive performances including the defensive win against Holy Trinity. By the end of the season, all players had improved greatly, and the quality of play was excellent.

"Hey! This isn't wrestling, it's football!"

"Huuuuuuut one!"

Front Row: Patrick Fowlow, Jim Herbers, Jerome Myers, Randy Lang, Rod Skates. Middle Row: Fred Matthews, Nigel Gumbs, Willie Poon, Yasu Iwashina, Adam Payne, Darcy Molstad, Dave Murray, Duncan Scrimger, Jay Nind, Troy Delowsky, John Jenkins, Chris Hardy. Back Row: Coach Malcolm, Coach Powers, Karan Dhaliwal, Dave Sereida, Cameron Wood, Peter Harvey, Eric Martin, Reid Wilson, Justin Quaidoo, Shane Park, Luke Price, Rick Burneau, Tim Harris, Coach Carr, Coach Wells. Missing: Coach Donald.

The JUNIOR LORDS football team of 1987 was much improved over the 1986 squad, winning 2 games out of 6. 2 of these games were lost by less than a touchdown. The highlight of the year was the 29-0 "under the lights" win against Queen Elizabeth in the last game of the season. At this point, most of the players were able to put on their equipment properly!

Boys' Volleyball

The JUNIOR BOYS had a very successful season, they finished second in league play. The Lords defeated O'Leary in the City semifinals and lost to Harry Ainlay in a very exciting and close match in the City Finals.

The Lords had an outstanding season. They were the Consolation Winners at T.V.T. They finished second at the 40 team U.B.C. tournament. Second at the U of C tournament and they successfully defended their championship at the K.L.O. in Kelowna. The team finished second overall in league play and went on to defeat Bev Facey in the semifinals, but lost to the Titans before a great crowd in the City Finals. The Lords went onto the provincials, where they finished third.

Girls' Volleyball

Congratulations to the JUNIOR GIRLS' Volleyball team on a successful 1987-88 season. They captured the Spruce Grove Invitational Tournament only to be defeated in the City Semifinals. Great year Lords!

"Hallelujah, I believe!"

The SENIOR GIRLS' Volleyball team had an excellent year - moving up from 12th in the city at the start of the season to 6th position at the end of the season. The team qualified for the City Finals, but lost out in the quarter finals.

"I have the strangest urge for a banana!"

Basketball

The JUNIOR BOYS' Basketball team had a successful 1987-88 season. The Lords competed in the M.E.L. Tournament, made it to the City Conference and advanced to the City Quarter-finals.

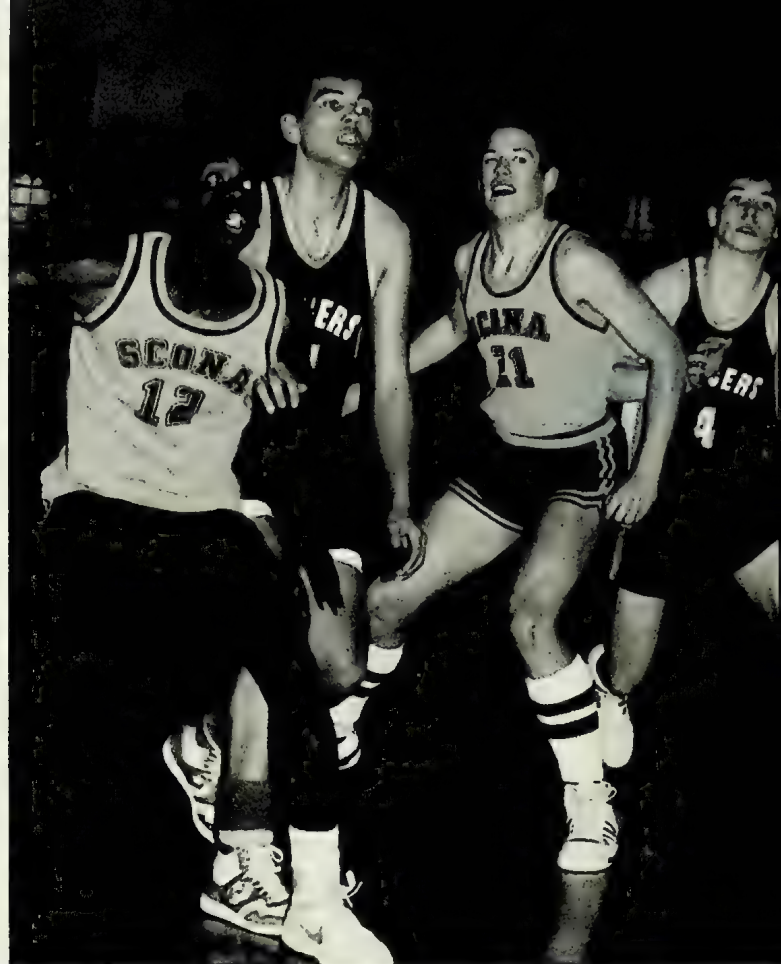

The SENIOR BOYS' Basketball team of 1987-88 started their season off slowly, and so played in the City Conference where they were very successful. The Lords went on to win the City Conference Championship. Congratulations!

Boy, aren't we possessive?!

Back to front, L-R: Coach Love, Kerri Forsythe, Marliss Visser, Julie Naylor, Leanne McLeod, Coach Simrose, KathyJo Matthews, Rachel Rohatyn, Shannon McKay, Melanie Robertson, Suzanne Scott (Manager), Amy Wayne, Paula Williams, Stephanie Schultz, Kimberly Bombier.

The Junior Girls' Basketball team enjoyed a very successful year playing all season in the premiere division, losing narrowly in the quarter finals. This talented team also won the J.P. Early Bird Tournament back at the start of the season. Well-done girls.

Girls' Basketball

The SENIOR GIRLS' Basketball team had a successful year. It began with winning the Consolation Final at the CAPHER tournament, and ended with a chance at the City Championship. The Lords suffered an unfortunate loss in the final to finish off the year in second place in their division.

Cheerleaders

Back to front, L-R: May Yew, Tara Mants, Tammy Walton, Kathy Shierman, Lisa Whitehead, Kathy Warke, Michelle Simpson, Tracy Hetherington, Amrita Chakrobarti, Tonya Keller. Coaches: Doris Woo, Barry Werkman.

This ten member all-female squad placed second at the World Playdowns, second at the Canadian Cheerleaders' Assembly and captured third place at the 1988 Canadian Grand Nationals in April.

"I think I'm stuck."

Fans!

"I'd like you to meet my date."

"Do you think it's over?"

"Hey, big boy!"

"... And this is my boyfriend Marvin."

Born free!!

"Mom! Look what followed me home!"

"And after the 7 day Dove test ..."

"Will you marry me?"

"It was 3, no 10, yeah, 10 huge guys with knives ... no, with guns, yeah that's it!"

"I'm not speaking to you until you put my curtains back!"

"No, I don't need mouth to mouth!"

"Is it safe to eat this stuff?"

"Here, have some banana!"

Chow Down!

Scona's favorite pastime this year seemed to be eating! Thank goodness for track season - we sure needed the exercise!

"Seconds, anyone?"

"Test next class!"

"Honest, we didn't plan it!"

"Get me down ..."

"Gimme a break! These are better than the cafeteria's!"

"What did you want?"

"... I've gotta' be me ..."

"Dearly beloved, we are gathered here today ..."

"Thank you, thank you. For my next number ..."

Battle of the Bands/Air Guitar

Scona's musicians showed what they could do in the explosive Battle of the Bands. However those who felt that comedy, rather than music was the mane of the game, participated in the hilarious Air Guitar Show.

"Alright, who took my guitar strings?"

"I ain't gotta' home ..."

Tropicana Days

Scona's Tropicana Days were a great success this year with many enthusiastic closet beach bums coming out in their outrageous beach fashions. Events organized by the Students' Union included the Rumba, Hula hoop contests, and the ever popular beach volleyball. The day ended with a dance featuring a limbo contest where students found out just how low they could go!

"That's the way we became the Brady Bunch!"

"Pete be nimble, Pete be quick, Pete go underneath the stick."

"No! This is hurdles!!"

"Give me a hand! I think I'm stuck."

"You should use Palmolive."

"Ring around the rosy ..."

Western Days

For the last two days in April, Scona looked like a miniature Calgary Stampede! Cowboys and cowgirls were struttin' down the halls after devouring heaps of pancakes that even the famous celebrity, Henry (Gizmo) Williams, couldn't resist. Of course Western Days wouldn't have been complete without a bronco bull which managed to throw off a number of daring students. The event finished with a REAL Western Dance - square dancing and all.

"Watch it, my wife is just around the corner."

WANTED: Dead or Alive!

World Waterpark High School Challenge Winners!

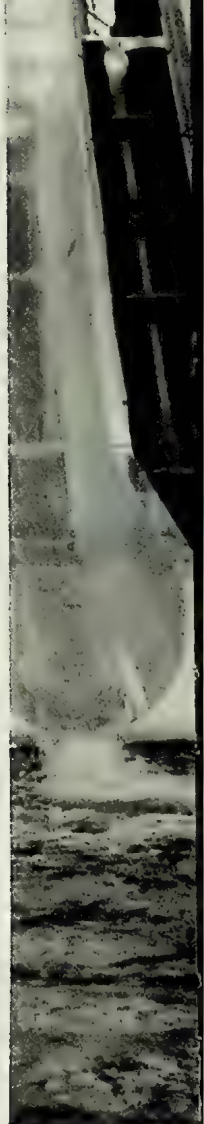

Scona's dynamic waterpark team participated in activities ranging from fashion shows to who could pull a girl on an inner tube through the water the fastest this spring in the WEM World Waterpark Challenge.

Scona fought against Louis St. Laurent in the last round and came out the winners for the $5000 prize. The Students' Union decided to spend the prize money on a new sound system for the school. Our team pitied Louis St. Laurent and gave them $1500 for their great efforts. What spirit!

The CHAMPIONS!

Faster than a speeding bullet ...

"Sorry we're late, did we win?"

Sports

"Tell them to wait .... I dropped my contact!"

"Look up, look waaay up!"

"I've got a headache this big, and it's got Sona written all over it!"

"Help! Let me out of this yearbook!"

The Ku Klux Klan in action.

"And for my next number".

Congratulations to Grads

The Lords captured their 17th straight City Championship. This year the team "swept" all the trophies. This is only the second time in the history of high school track a school has swept each category (Scona 1982). It was a great team effort with everyone helping to make it the 17th. The tradition continues ...

Final Points:

1st: Scona with 519 pts.

2nd: McNally with 232 pts.

City Records: Chris Begg-hurdles; James Aldridge, Andy Troszok, Jeff Smith, Karl Jones in the 4x400

Provincial Records: Lincoln Loo-long jump; Gail Brightley-hurdles

Sweep 17

Oonagh before she "hits the wall".

"Sweep, sweep, sweep!"

"Let's see ... Taking the wind velocity into account ..."

"Look Ma, I'm flyin'!"

"Hurry up!"

"Stop pulling the cup apart, you guys!"

"This little piggy went to market ..."

"Pssst! What's the answer to number 5?"

"I've got an in-sie!"

"He's always late!"

"Who said this water was warm!"

Mr. Malcolm and his "Wanna-be's"!

Scona has Olympic spirit!

AWARDS

The 1987-88 school year awards will be presented at a ceremony in October, not in June as in the past. The major reasons the school is trying this approach is to ensure that all students are treated in the same manner and that awards are decided on all available information. To date one student may have received an award based on a full year's work from September, whilst another was judged solely on the one report card mark in April. The new approach will allow for awards to be decided when all students have completed all their courses. This change will allow the grade 12 students' performance on the provincial examinations to be included. The only awards that have been determined this year are the service awards.

Major Service Awards (Outstanding contributions to the school)

AWARDS BOARD
Back to front, L-R:
Mr. Hill, Mr. Davies, Lauren Bowker, Melissa Lovatt, Mrs. Smith, Chrissy Mitchell, Suzanne Scott, Mrs. Villneff. Missing: Mr. Lawson, Mr. McCuaig, Ms. Bombardieri, Keltie Duggan, Janet Murphy, Joanne Aldridge.

The Awards Board meets regularly to discuss changes in Scona's Awards policy, new awards, and related business. This year the board was composed of teachers, students and representatives of the Home and School Association. The varied viewpoints yielded lively and productive discussions.

THEY'RE LEAVING US!

Apparently, this year's crop of students at Scona have driven some of our teachers away! Seriously, though, we'd like to wish Mrs. Jones, Mr. Becker, Miss Bartels, Mrs. Vukadinovic, Mrs. Lundberg, Mr. Booi, Mr. Gardner and Mr. McCuaig good luck in the future. We hope that your replacements will be as great as you are!

Yearbook

(We think that we should say this first: writing the paragraph for the yearbook is the part of editorship we've dreaded the most!).

We started off the year R-E-A-L-L-Y S-L-O-W-L-Y, gradually gaining momentum until by the end of the year (and the last deadline) we were bouncing off the walls!

Anyway, we couldn't have done it without our loyal staff, artists, photographers and Mr. Woodrow. (Doesn't that sound like the Academy Awards?)

All of us hope you enjoyed the book; tell us if you did, but if you didn't, blame Mr. Woodrow!

-Your beloved yearbook editors,
Angela Fung and Heidi Betke

Patrons

We'd like to thank our patrons for their generous donations. Because of them, we were able to add another 16 pages to the yearbook this year. As well, the overwhelming community support enhanced the quality of our yearbook, and made the year a financial success.
